MSDNAA

Important Information for MSDNAA Application:

This program provides permission of its products for class application development and research, it is for academic use only. Requires a controlled distribution process, the user must fill an application form provided at the informatics office at AE-112. The License permits installation at the Computer Labs, Prof. Computers, and students enrolled in the class which requires the software.

For more Info:
End-User License Agreement: http://www.msdnaa.net/EULA/LATAM/English.aspx
Program Usage Guidelines Quick Summary: http://www.msdnaa.net/programusage.aspx

Application Process for the professor:
1. The following form should be completed MSDNAA product application. The document is available also at the informatics office at AE 112.
2. This document is to be completed and returned at the informatics office in AE 112.
3. If the professor requires the students to use the software (msdnaa@adem.uprm.edu) the list with the names and ID's of the students who need the software with the finished application attached. Also he/she must hand in the student application form to the student: "MSDNAA Software Student Check Out Form".
4. The professor will be informed by phone or email:
   a. classrooms, labs y and offices in which the product has been installed
   b. the date in which the students can pass to the office at AE-112 to hand in the "MSDNAA Software Student Check Out Form" signed and receive the service of lending the software required
   c. after the month a notification will be sent to the professor which tell he or she the amount of students that have already received the software and the number of the copy which was lent.

Student application process for MSDNAA products:
1. The student name must be included in one of the student lists provided by the professor at the Informatics Office AE-112 at the time of requirement.
2. The student will receive from the professor the application form: "MSDNAA Software Student Check Out Form".
3. The student will read the document, fill it completely and make sure it has the professor's signature and return it to the Informatics Office at AE 112.
4. The software will then be handed in to the student with installation instructions.
5. The student is responsible for the prompt return of the software and the conditions of the CD's.